

Rev. Pam Randall

First United Methodist Church of Quitman, MS

Theme: Rejoice in Restoration

Rev. Pam Randall is a clergy spouse, mother, daughter, friend, and pastor who is passionate about helping men and women find spiritual strength and support while caring for oneself, as well as, caring for others.

She is the wife of Alan Randall, a Mississippi Methodist Clergy since 1991. They have one daughter, Christina (24), who has recently graduated from University of Southern Mississippi with a Bachelor Degree in Broadcast Journalism. Her experiences as a wife of a United Methodist Minister, pastor, mother, caregiver, and all the various roles that define women enable her to use everyday living as a platform to present this year's retreat "Rejoice in Restoration".

Pam holds an AA degree in Gerontology, graduated from Candler School of Theology Course of Study Program, and is a Certified Activity Director. She has worked 2 years as an Activity Director at Riley Nursing Home in Meridian, MS and spent 3 years as a Chaplain with Hospice South in Meridian, MS. She has been a United Methodist Clergy since 2004. She currently serves as Pastor of First United Methodist Church in Quitman, MS.
